

Waterloo Public Library

LIBRARY CARD/REGISTRATION POLICY

Any person who resides within the city limits of Waterloo, or who owns property in Waterloo, will be issued a borrower's card, upon application, without a fee. Identification showing name and current Waterloo address is required.

Any person who resides within rural Black Hawk County will be issued a borrower's card, upon application, without a fee. Identification showing name and current address is required.

New card holders will have a three month probationary period with a limit of five items of any sort.

Children below the 5th grade must have a parental or legal guardian signature to obtain a borrower's card.

Waterloo Public Library will issue library cards in compliance with Open Access rules for statewide reciprocal borrowing.

3rd Age and Institutional cards are an agreement between the Library and an organization, not an individual.
